Product Description

Looking for a KeyFolio that boosts protection without adding bulk? This is exactly what you want. The Kensington KeyFolio Exact Thin Folio with Keyboard wraps your iPad in an ultra-thin folio that's not only stylish but also adds protection. The form-fitting basket design promotes thinness and a raised bezel protects the corners and screen of your iPad from scratches and damage.

The KeyFolio Exact's magnetic construction enables multiple viewing angles. Simply remove the keyboard and enjoy infinite viewing angles to suit your needs. Plus the thin and stable keyboard works well on your lap for productivity your way. There's even a soft folio interior that provides a gentle surface for your wrist to rest.

For uncompromised typing, you'll find a high-performance removable laptop-style keyboard. Built from the ground up, this keyboard offers 6 rows of island-style, raised tactile keys to make typing a breeze.

The Bluetooth keyboard pairs instantly with your iPad 5. You can pair it with multiple devices, too, for added utility at home. Think you won't need the keyboard today? It removes in seconds. And the magnetic construction makes securing your keyboard a snap.

The KeyFolio Exact secures easily with a magnetic closure and opens or closes with one hand. When you open it, you're iPad wakes automatically.
There's even a built-in stylus holder, so you'll have everything you need. And naturally, the KeyFolio Exact preserves easy access to all iPad ports. It all adds up to make the Kensington KeyFolio Exact the perfect ultra-thin companion for on the go.
